April 11

Dear Mary,

It's spring in Japan now, and the flowers are beautiful. How is the weather in New York?

Thank you for sending me your letter and some pictures last week. Is that your school in the picture? The library is nice and big! I was surprised to see so many books there. I want to go to an American university in the future and make friends there. I will also send you my pictures of my school and friends.

By the way, I will visit America with my parents during my summer vacation. My aunt lives in New York. I can stay there for two weeks. If you want, you can stay with me too! My aunt is very kind. She knows a lot about Japanese food. So she will teach us how to make Japanese food. Do you know temakizushi? It is a kind of sushi and I like it! Let's make temakizushi together.

I hope to hear from you soon.

Your friend,

Kanako

Kate's stay in Japan

Kate came from California. She is staying with Yumi and her family in Yokohama. She arrived in Japan on April 6 and will go back to California next March. She is interested in Japanese culture. She likes Japanese anime.

Kate and Yumi are in the same class at junior high school. Yumi is in the koto club. Kate thought about joining the tea ceremony club, but she joined the same club as Yumi because she was interested in Japanese music. That was her first time playing the koto. At first, she couldn't play the koto very well, but Yumi and her teacher, Ms. Tanaka were very kind. Kate practiced hard. They were going to perform the koto at the school festival in September.

The koto club had practices on Tuesdays and Fridays, but Kate practiced the koto every day after school. On weekends, she practiced with Yumi at Yumi's house and performed for Yumi's parents.

On the day of the festival, Kate was very nervous. Yumi's mother gave Kate a good luck charm and said, "Don't worry. You'll be fine. Enjoy your performance!" Kate and Yumi performed the koto very well. "Both of you did a great job!" Ms. Tanaka came and said. Kate wanted to tell her parents in California about the performance.
